THE GUARDIAN OF OUR BODY.

THE GUARDIAN OF OUR BODY.

The foremost biologist of our day.

M. Metschnikoff, has shown the world of science that there are leucocytes in our blood that act as seavengers or policemen. These policemen which are called phagocytes look out for the noxious or poisonous elements in our blood. Various offending clements are picked out of the blood and issues by these policemen, the phagocytes, and we enjoy immunity from disease so long as our blood contains plenty of phagocytes and red blood coptuseles.

"A new broom sweeps clean "and in order to put our own house in order we must get rid of all the poisons in the blood with a new broom such as an alterative extract made from reots and herbs—without the use of alcohol, as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a specific for making sich red blood—for eradicating the poisons from the blood. In some way the policemen in the blood are increased in number and strength—so that we are put in the best possible shape to resist disease—to cure neuralgia, colds, catarrh, and incipient consumption.

"The more study and time is given to the subject the more we find that the blood is the centre of life—says Dr. R. V. Pierce, the now of a cialitof Buffalo, "the health and contact of the everage person depends entire hearts of his everage person Pleasant P flets are a mild

"My dear Sir :- On my return to Jackson last evening I was shown a not enough.

She added, however: "As I have number of clippings from two or three taken a fancy to you I will advance the taken a fancy to you I will advance the number of clippings from two or three newspapers published at Shreveport, La., protesting in the most scurrilous terms against the proposition to have me serve as permanent chairman of the National Cotton Convention in that city or the 18th to Lith instant on the 12th to 15th instant.

"As you are aware that the invitation to serve as chairman came to me unsolicited, you can doubtless imagine my great surprise at this editorial out-to name for its presiding officer whomever it may see fit.

The people of the south are indeed in a deplorable condition, if, in the life of this republic, it has come to pass that in order to enjoy the privileges of citizenship and exercise their rights un-der the constitution they must kiss the hand that smites them, must appland the tongue that maligns them and glorify the contemptible creature who would break down their institutions, dishonor their traditions which distinguish their civilization and in either ignorance or malice place their affairs on a par with the disorganized and discredited republic of Hayti.

"In the performance of the functions of his office as President standing as the embodiment of the majesty and power of the laws of this great republic, as a citizen thereof, am as loyal to Theodore Roosevelt as any man who lives beneath the stars and stripes. But for the little individual who has seen fit to malign a falsehood written about him, after Mrs. Davis had called his attention to it; who has insulted the southern people, violated the law for purpose of humiliating Mississippians particularly, I have no more respect for him though he be I'resident, than I had for this same little individual when he was pursuing his mes. becoming avocation breaking

I hope the President is not as bad a man as conduct of that character would stamp him. But I am not sure of it. You can no more tell by what Mr. Theodore Roosevelt says today what he will do tomorrow than you can tell the character of the person buried beneath the stone by the epitaph engraved on the stone. Worst of All Experiences. Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Aia. Mme. Desiree told the young farmer that if he could provide her with $6,000 in gold, to hold for a week, so that she could work the oracle, she could supply to be permanent chairman of the boll weevil convention at Shreveport. The letter was given out yesterday by the Governor's secretary. It follows in part:

"Jackson, Miss., Dec. 4, 1904.
"Hon. J. C. Pugb, Chairman executive committee, National Cotton Convention, Shreveport, La. all his investments, which realized $4,000. With this sum he returned to the fortune-teller, who told him it was

It had been Richardson's boast through life that he had never put his lips to a woman's although he married for love and "lived happily ever afterward."

His disdain for osculation hung on a pin. An incident at a social held in the south before the civil war led him to eschew the joys of woman's lips for life.

A game was being played by the guestin which the young women had to forfeit a kiss to her captor.

Young Richardson's timidity being known, a plot was laid to get him to kies a girl. She placed a piu iu her mouth, and when Eh's bashful lips were to press hers she was to prick his lips with the piu. The fateful moment came. Eli demurred, but was prevailed upon to yield to temptation. He started to implant the kiss, but his eye caught the gleam of the pin and he refused. From that day until his death he never kissed a Compulsory Vaccination.

The constitutionality of the police power to entorce vaccination was argued Monday in the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Henning Jacobson versus the Commonwealth of Masschusetts. Jacobson upon refusal to submit to compulsory vaccination, was fixed $5, and the Superior Court of Massachusetts sustained the verdict and the law. George Fred Williams appeared for Jacobson, whose case is being backed by the National Anti-Compulsory League. Assistant Attorney H. N. Nash appeared for the commonwealth.
